Supervisor Burke made the following statement:

“The week of July 25 through 29, 2005, the members of Crenshaw Christian Center and Fellowship of Inner City Word of Faith Ministries (FICWFM) will honor and celebrate Dr. Frederick K.C. Price for over 50 years of ministry and the 15th year anniversary of FICWFM. Dr. Price, known as a trailblazer in the American-Christian community, a man of integrity with impeccable character, a devoted husband and father, beloved friend and mentor to many.

“In over 50 years of ministry, Dr. Frederick K.C. Price traveled far and wide to deliver the message of Jesus Christ, established the Crenshaw Christian Center (CCC) in Inglewood, in 1973 where at the time his church family consisted of 300 active members. In 1989, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, he built one of the finest sanctuaries in the Nation, the 10,146 seat Faith Dome in the heart of South Central. Under the stewardship of Dr. Price, the CCC congregation has grown to over 27,000, overseeing an established preschool, elementary, middle and high school, and correspondence school. Serving as a stimulus to the community, it employs 225 employees and coordinates approximately 2,500 volunteers to serve the congregation and community with specialized ministries, programs, support groups and community task forces to assist, empower and uplift the community. Additionally, its ministry has expanded to television, radio, book and tape ministries establishing Dr. Price as the first Black Minister on television with the longest running television ministry, ‘Ever Increasing Faith.’

3 (Continued)

“In 1990, Dr. Frederick K.C. Price founded the Fellowship of Inner City Word of Faith Ministries, a combined membership in the hundreds of thousands, to provide fellowship, guidance and a spiritual covering for pastors around the Nation desiring a higher standard of excellence in ministry. His ability to foster Christian fellowship is not only recognized within our urban community today, but has been abundantly evident around the world. Dr. Price has received many honors, among them he is the recipient of the Horatio Alger Award and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference’s Kelly Miller Smith Interfaith Award. For his community and societal impact he was named Turning Point Magazine and Turning Point Communication’s, 2005 Living History Makers ‘Advocate’ Honoree.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Burke, seconded by Supervisor Yaroslavsky, unanimously carried, the Board proclaimed July 24, 2005 as “Dr. Frederick K. C. Price Day” throughout Los Angeles County in honor of this outstanding pastor, teacher, leader and his numerous good works.
